At LOSRRAS (The Lewes Organisation in Support of Refugees and Asylum Seekers), we are shocked and saddened by the assault on the rights and dignity of refugees, presented by the Nationality and Borders Bill, currently being debated in Parliament.

We have joined the umbrella organisation "Together with Refugees" and are holding a local day of action designed to highlight the iniquities of this anti-refugee bill, and to show our commitment to welcoming refugees and asylum seekers, regardless of their reasons for fleeing or their method of arrival.

On the morning of Saturday 9th October, join us at The Studio in the Depot Cinema, Lewes for a drop-in session, where we will be creating anti-bill and welcome messages, using the symbol chosen by the "Together with Refugees" coalition - an orange heart.

We will then take our hearts and messages to The Barbican Gateway at Lewes Castle for photos and, hopefully, local press coverage.

All materials will be provided and we will be mindful of the need for a Covid-aware environment.

We are also providing postcards for you to write your own message to Maria Caulfield MP, which LOSRRAS will then hand deliver to her constituency office in Newhaven.
